Installation on Windows 10

How to install Voidol2 (Windows 10)

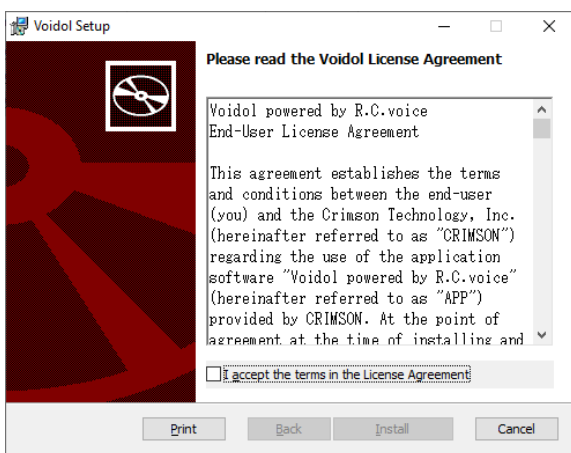

Please prepare the downloaded zip file and the license key you received when you purchased Voidol2 at the first.

When you unzip the zip file, you can find the set up execution file of Voidol2 (VoidolSetup.exe).

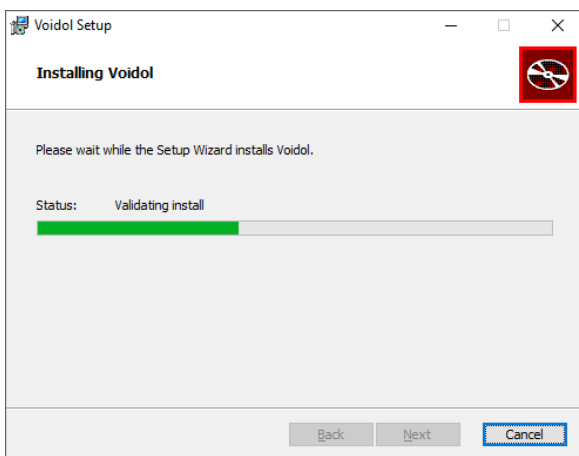

VoidolSetup.exe

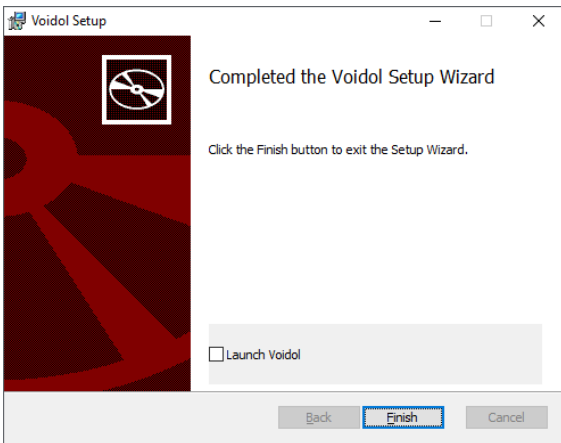

Please run VoidolSetup.exe by double-clicking or by right-clicking and selecting “Open”.

Please read the license terms, then check “I accept the terms in the License Agreement”, and click “Next”.

Voidol2 is being installed.

The installation completed.
Please finish the installer by clicking “Finish”.

Next, to enable the software feature, you must register the license key in Voidol2.

Please launch Voidol2 by clicking the icon in the folder “Voidol” on Windows 10 Start Menu, and register the application

For Trial Version User

If you are using the trial version of Voidol2, you can use it with no limitations by purchasing Voidol2 attached with a license key. When you purchase Voidol2 attached with a license key, you must register the license key in Voidol2 according to “License Registration” in this guide.

Installation on macOS

How to install Voidol2 (macOS)

Please prepare the downloaded dmg file and the license key you received when you purchased Voidol2.

When you double-click the dmg file, the following pkg file is displayed.

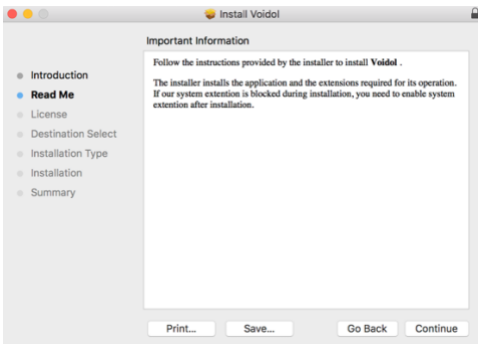

Voidol.pkg

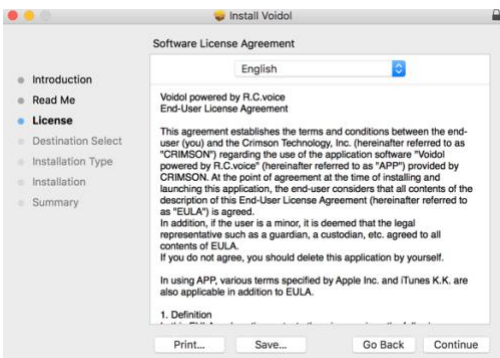

Please run Voidol.pkg by double-clicking or by right-clicking and selecting “Open”.

Please click "Continue".

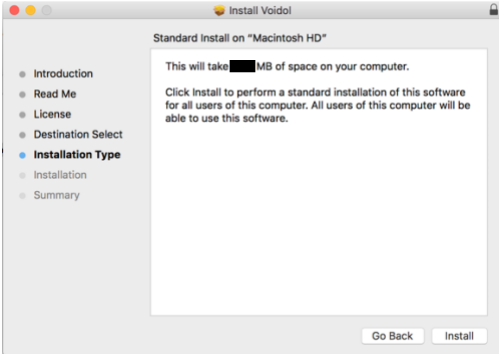

Important information about the Voidol2 installer is displayed. Please confirm the information and click "Continue".

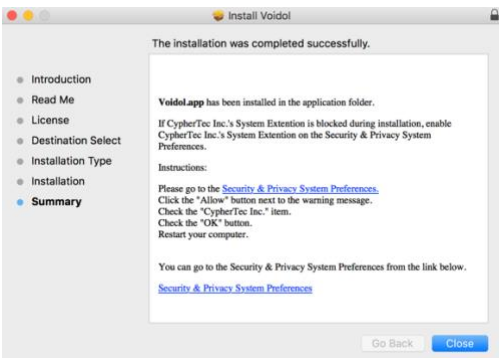

Please confirm the End-User License Agreement and click “Continue”, then click “Agree”.

Please check the Installation Type and click “Install”.

The installation completed.

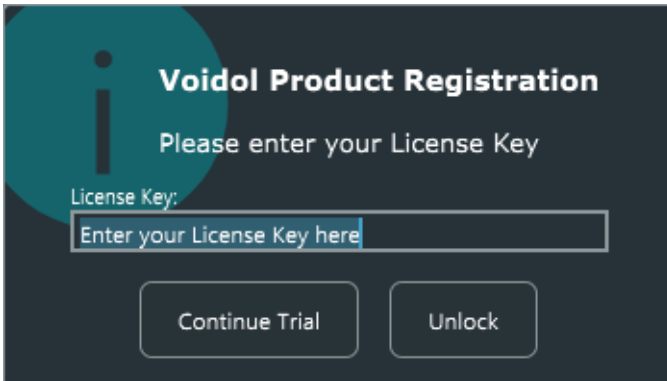

Next, to enable a software feature, you must register the license key in Voidol2. Please launch Voidol2 on Launchpad or Finder, and then register the application license referring to “License Registration” in this guide.

For Trial Version User

If you are using the trial version of Voidol2, you can use it with no limitations by purchasing Voidol2 attached with a license key. When you purchase Voidol2 attached with a license key, you must register the license key referring to “License Registration” in this guide.

License Registration

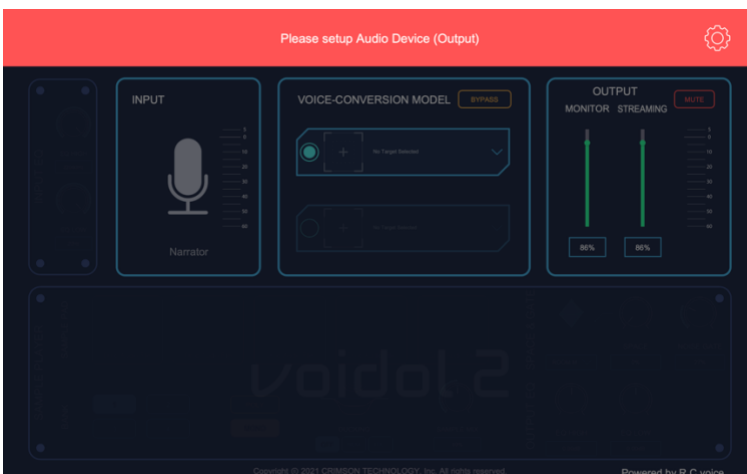

After the installation, License registration is required in order to use Voidol2. The license registration window will be displayed at the first startup of the application.

This is the license registration form.

Please enter or paste license key you received when you purchased Voidol2. If you enter the correct license key and click "Unlock", the application activation will be complete and Voidol2 main screen will be displayed.

To prevent feedback, when you start the software for the first time, some of the audio environment settings have not been completed, and an error message will appear in the red banner. Please refer to the "User's Guide" in the Help menu of the application to complete the settings.

Installing Audio Files for SAMPLE PLAYER

After unzipping the downloaded "Voidol_v2.xx", you will see a "Copy This Folder to Your PC" folder. The folder contains audio files that can be used as a sound effect or background music on Voidol2. Please copy this folder to "Documents" or any other location in your drive, and drag and drop the audio file from your PC into SAMPLE PLAYER on Voidol2.

【Note】 If you move or delete this audio file, the sound will be lost on Voidol2.
